

LIU SHAOLIN SÁNDOR

Best results

What does short track mean to you?
"Short track has offered me wonderful experiences, which there are no words for. To put it simply it always makes me feel good."

500 m 40.305 Dresden, Febr. 5.2017
1000 m 1:23.788 Shanghai, Dec. 14, 2014
1500 m 2:11.807 Salt Lake City, Nov. 12, 2016
3000 m 4:53.457 Seoul, March 13, 2016

World Championships

2015/2016 - 1. (500 m)
2014/2015 - 2. (500 m, 5000 m relay)
2015/2016 - 3. (overall)
2016/2017 - 3. (5000 m relay)

European Championships

2014/2015 - 2. (5000 m relay)
2015/2016 - 2. (overall, 5000 m relay)
2016/2017 - 2. (overall)
2012/2013 - 3. (5000 m relay)
2016/2017 - 3. (5000 m relay)

World Cup

2015/2016 - 1. (5000 m relay) Shanghai
2016/2017 - 1. (500 m) Dresden
2016/2017 - 1. (500 m, 5000 m relay) Calgary

500m: 3. 1500m: 7.

2014 - 20. (1500 m)

World Rankings 2016/17

Olympics

Sanyi

Idol: My brother, and my partner: Elise Christie. There are many reasons, but first of all, because they can motivate me with their perseverance and their will-power

Favourite drink: lemon frizz, or Cranberry juice
Favourite food: a delicious pizza

Mascot: bracelets I got from Elisel, Ádó, my Mamámtól Papámtól or myself

Favourite animal: since we rescued a little cat hiding by the ice rink with the ice making Rolba staff, my speed skating assistant friend, Berci Blaskó and Bence Oláh, I have been really keen on cats. I've even taken the little animal home with me. or maybe a small piglet.

Hobby: movies, a good film can come any time

Favourite music: All Night The Vamps
Favourite colour: red

Proud of: my good results and that I can be an example for the youth. This really makes me proud.

Did you know? Sándor Liu Shaolin and his brother, Ádó started their sports career with swimming, but they often got sick of the chloride water thus they decided on another physical condition of water. They spent a whole year in China, where they acquired the base of their unique technique. Their father is an artist